The need for God and His direction.....

Our World Problem/An Old Answer

To begin with I want to address our world's present problem and needed answer. Our world situation could be described as an old house falling apart. Seeing the house, the rafters are sagging, the exterior walls are shifting, and the windows are shattering. Inside the floor is falling in, the walls are sagging, items on the walls are falling, furniture is falling into the hole in the floor. The entire house is caving in. One looks outside under the house, and the entire house is caving into a void under the house, the bedrock has been taken out. A great horrific site!

Thus our world has such a void in it. Our social system is corrupt, government is corrupt, families are torn apart and dysfunctional, drugs and alcohol abuse, child abuse, sexual abuse is rampant. Although many descriptions could be added, our world /country is like the old house it's falling into a void/ a hole. Someone has taken the bedrock out from under the house. Our world is caving in, what was filling the void?

GOD

Our society has taken God and Faith in Him out of our world. His authority and power has been disowned, rejected and our world is falling apart. Thus the answer is returning to faith in GOD. Until we restore God / Christ centered beliefs back into society we will continue to fall into this void. It is impossible for one person or ministry to address this major problem, but we together as Christians can deal with our own part.

Doing For The Least Ministries in South Texas is attempting to do just that, do our part. This ministry offers support groups to people with drug addictions, and people coming out of prisons, people with personal and family problems. DFTL presents the Faith principle of scripture to address this problem on the local field. The principles of faith and biblical concepts are used to deal with behavior, various addictions and the lies we believe.

The CASA (Christians Against Substance Abuse) and The Belief and Behavior Support Groups are the instruments that are used to deal with these life controlling problems of our day. The approach is an age-old answer;

THE BIBLE

Where we began.....

In the mid 90's I attended several classes in mental health at a junior college in Corpus Christi. I began seeing a vast amount of social and spiritual problems. I had my Bible /Ministry training in Dallas a few years before so I was sensitive to what was going on as I saw mental illnesses, drug addictions, mental retardation, problems with aging, and health problems. At the same time I was involved in the CASA program and began to see the crime and drug problems as well as those in prison and juvenile detentions. I started my ministry by going into juvenile detentions and the Three Rivers Prison and began to realize someone could develop a ministry out of all these problems. So, since I was looking for ministry the Lord told me get after it. Thus began "Get Real Ministries" in 1994. In 2002, we formed a non-profit Texas corporation, Doing For The Least Ministries, Inc., which was granted a 501(c)(3) status by the IRS.

The ministry has focused on meeting the spiritual and emotion needs of people in jail, prison, juvenile facilities, and nursing homes. Moving to Alice in 2003, we focused on working with ex-offenders and jail work. As the years went by I saw that an ex-offender had many problems that this ministry was unable to address, other than support groups.

In 2007, we established a relationship with the Drug Court in Alice. This brought us a significant increase in the number of persons we are able to minister to. Drug Court is a program of the county court system that allows a person with addiction, drug charges, DWI, or possession to drop their charges if they take the program.

Where we are now....

Currently we are ministering to people from drug court, probation, and those on parole. Since mid 2007 to the end of 2008, 61 came through, in 2009 there were 45, and since the beginning of this year, 14 have come from Drug Court. The total, including a few non Drug Court from mid 2007 to the current month is 120. As of November 2010, we had 81 that had come through the group sessions. 69 came through in 2011 with 48 by December 2012.

Some are staying the 9 to 12 month period while a few are coming one or a few times. The turnaround with the ministry since 2007 has been the reason I keep going with this ministry effort. This number doesn't represent a commitment to the church but reveals that the seed has been, and is being, planted and these are beginning a journey of faith that will get them to the point of true conversion and commitment to Christ.

What I'm aiming at is to give these the faith that changes the problems & behavior behind the addictions. I'm attempting to build into their lives a belief system or give them a foundation to build their lives on that can endure the life controlling problems that attack them. The purpose is to instill into them power instead of powerlessness, hope and peace rather than hopelessness and fear that haunts them. The grace and power of God's word and the Gospel of His Son can bring that power to them.

But... Where are we Going ?
